PROFILE

Hi, I'm Kari. As a graduate of HackerYou's Front-End Web Development Immersive Program, I have built a solid foundation in the latest front-end technologies and best practices. I am passionate about writing clean code, mastering tools to improve my workflow, and continuously adding to my skill set.

SELECTED WORK

CUSTOMPRESS | CUSTOM WORDPRESS THEME KARIFAIRWEATHER.COM/CUSTOMPRESS

- A versatile responsive WordPress theme custom-made to appeal to lifestyle bloggers.

JAZZERCIZE | CLIENT API APPLICATION HYJAZZERCISE.GITHUB.IO/ECHONESTAPI

- An application for a 'client', Jazzercise utilizes the Echo Nest API to generate a playlist based on the users' music taste and the intensity of their workout.

MASTER | PSD TO RESPONSIVE HTML KARIFAIRWEATHER.COM/MASTER

- A single-page responsive 'client' website. This site was recreated from a PSD design and utilizes the Bourbon Neat grid system.
